Virginia Military Institute

DISTINCTIVE FEATURES.
The attention of all who are interested in education is respectfully called to the special advantages now offered by the Virginia Military Institute. Among these advantages:
I. Its Distinctive Military System. This has secured for it the name of the "West Point of the South." It tends to muscular development and physical training, and enforces discipline, order, self-reliance and force of personal character by removing all extraneous distinctions, and creating each youth, whatever his antecedent circumstances, on a new basis of individual responsibility. It is equal, uniform and wholesome restraining. Without artifice.
II. Its Distinctive Academic Curriculum. This embraces the study of English, History, French or Spanish, German or Latin, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Mechanics, Surveying, Chemistry, Drawing, Law, Economics, Literature, Practical Science.
III. Its Technical Scientific Courses. Provision is made for the member of the second class to elect between the courses of Civil Engineering, of Analytical and Applied Chemistry and of Electrical Engineering. These courses are of one and a half year duration and are illustrated by continuous field and laboratory practice. The equipment with instruments and materials, and the chemical, physical and mineralogical laboratories have all appliances for thorough practical instruction.
IV. Its Distinctive System of Instruction. This divides of classes into sections, whereby the students are gratefully graded and each secures a share of the personal attention of the instructor. The success of the educational work of the school turns largely on this method.
V. Its Economy. The expenses are: Pay cadet, $25 a year; Virginia cadets tuition free, $100 a year; State cadets $15 a year. This estimate includes tuition, board, fuel and lights, washing, room rent, medical attendance of the most careful character, clothing, books, stationery and all necessary expenses, and falls below that of any institution of like grade in this country. The estimate is exclusive of outfit, and must be understood as an average for the entire training year being of necessity the most costly.
Degrees B. A. and B. S. conferred in course.
For further information and catalogue apply to the Superintendent,
GEN. E. W. NICHOLS, Lexington, Virginia.
Next session opens September 5th, 1918.
